Table of Contents

Foreword i

Terminology ii

Chapter One: Program Overview 1

1. Volunteerism in America 1
   - 1.1 Volunteer Demographics 1
   - 1.2 Organizations with the Most Volunteers 2
   - 1.3 Volunteer Work 2
   - 1.4 Trends in Volunteerism 2
2. Volunteerism in the Military 3
   - 2.1 Uniqueness of Military Volunteerism 4
3. History and Background of the Volunteer Services Program 5
   - 3.1 Program Challenges 5
   - 3.2 Philosophy and Program Goals 6
   - 3.3 Relationship to the DOD Mission 6
   - 3.4 Relationship to Other Family Support Programs 7
   - 3.5 Impact of Volunteer Services 8
   - 3.6 Policy and Guidance 8

Chapter Two: Program Planning 9

2. Volunteer Services Program Planning 9
   - 2.1 Program Planning Elements 9
   - 2.2 Needs Assessment and Data Analysis 10
     - 2.2.1 Client Needs and Demographics 11
     - 2.2.2 Command Needs 12
     - 2.2.3 Local Community Needs 13
   - 2.3 Data Sources 13
     - 2.3.1 Surveys 13

2.3.2 Focus Groups 15
2.3.3 Interviews 17
2.4 Resource Identification and Assessment 19
2.4.1 Agency Resources 19
2.4.2 Community Resources 20
2.4.3 Fiscal and Material Resources 21
2.5 Program Planning 21
2.5.1 Program Planning Benefits 22
2.5.2 Program Planning Process 22
2.5.3 Program Planning Agenda 26
2.5.3.1 Strategic Planning Agenda Tips 27
2.6 Program Design 29

Chapter Three: Program Administration 31

3. Volunteer Services Program Administration 31
3.1 Need for Documentation 31
3.2 Types of Documentation 32
3.3 Initial Documentation 32
3.3.1 Application and Emergency Data 33
3.3.2 Parental Permission 45
3.3.3 Position Descriptions 47
3.3.3.1 Sample position descriptions 49
3.3.4 Volunteer Agreement or Contract 54
3.3.4.1 Volunteer Agreement or Contract 54
3.3.5 Privacy Act and Confidentiality 57
3.3.6 Volunteer Orientation Document 60
3.3.7 Background Check 60
3.3.8 Conflict of Interest Agreement 60
3.3.8.1 Conflict of Interest Agreement 60
3.3.9 Name Tag 63
3.4 Maintenance Documentation 63

3.4.1 Time Sheet or Service Record 63
3.4.1.1 Time Sheet or Service Record 63
3.4.2 Training Records 66
3.4.3 Performance Reviews 66
3.4.4 Recognition Documentation 66
3.5 Termination Documentation 66
3.5.1 Letters of Reference. 66
3.6 Reporting Requirements 67
3.7 Other tools. 68

Chapter Four: Recruiting 73

4. Recruitment 73
4.1 Marketing Plan 74
4.2 Product Definition. 76
4.3 Market Research 76
4.4 Target Audiences. 78
4.4.1 Junior Spouses 79
4.4.2 Mid-career and Senior Spouses 80
4.4.3 New Arrivals 80
4.4.4 Sponsors. 81
4.4.5 Teenagers and College Students 82
4.4.6 Retirees 82
4.4.7 Active Duty Personnel 83
4.4.8 Senior Military Personnel 83
4.4.9 Recruiting for Diversity 84
4.5 Marketing Campaigns. 85
4.5.1 Developing and Implementing a Marketing Campaign 86
4.5.1.1 Product 87
4.5.1.2 Target your Audience 88
4.5.1.3 Establish a Goal 89
4.5.1.4 Campaign Length 89

4.5.1.5 Tools 89
4.5.1.6 Measure and Report Results 90
4.6 Select Marketing Tools 92
4.6.1 Audio-visual Tools 93
4.6.1.1 Television 93
4.6.1.2 Television Tips 94
4.6.2 Radio 94
4.6.2.1 Radio Tips 95
4.6.3 Other Audio Visual Tools 96
4.7 Online Marketing 96
4.7. Web Pages 97
4.7.2 Electronic Newsletters 97
4.7.3 E-mail 98
4.8 Print Media 98
4.8.1 Installation Publications 99
4.8.2 Community Publications 100
4.8.3 Family Support Program Publications 101
4.8.4 Brochures, Flyers and Posters 101
4.8.4.1 Testimonials 102
4.9 Public Relations 104
4.9.1 Networking 104
4.9.2 Correspondence 105
4.9.3 Briefings 105
4.9.4 Special Events 106
4.9.4.1 Volunteer Recruitment Fairs 106
4.9.4.2 Plan a Volunteer Fair 107
4.9.4.3 Ten Tips for a Hosting a Successful Volunteer Fair 107
4.9.4.4 Volunteer Fair Planning Timeline 109
4.9.4.5 Incentives 113
4.9.4.6 Luncheons and Receptions 114

4.9.4.7 Other Special Events 114
4.10 Evaluate Marketing Results 115

Chapter Five: Orientation and Training 117
5. Orienting and Training Volunteers 117
5.1. Orienting Volunteers 118
5.1.1 Orientation Components 118
5.1.2 Orientation Formats 119
5.1.3 Initial Contact 120
5.1.4 Orientation Check List 120
5.1.5 Learning Objectives 128
5.2 Tax Deductible Expenses 132
5.3 Training Tools 135
5.4 Ongoing Training 153
5.5 Training Record 154
5.6 Supervisor Training 157
5.7 Rights and Responsibilities 157

Chapter Six: Volunteer Management 163
6. Volunteer Management 163
6.1 Interviewing and Screening 164
6.1.1 Purpose of Volunteer Interviews 164
6.1.2 Interview Location 165
6.1.3 Pre-Interview Preparation 165
6.1.4 Opening the Interview 165
6.1.5 Conducting the Interview 166
6.1.6 Closing the Interview 166
6.1.7 Documenting the Interview 167
6.2 Managing Volunteers 171
6.2.1 Create Interesting Jobs 171
6.2.2 Get New Volunteers to Work 172
6.2.3 Make them Feel “at Home” 172

6.2.4 Create a Shared Vision 173
6.2.5 Treat Volunteers as Equals 173
6.2.6 Make Volunteering Fun 173
6.2.7 Managing Off-site Volunteers 174
6.2.8 Strategies for Managing Young Volunteers 175
6.2.9 Strategies for Managing Gen X Volunteers 177
6.2.10 Tips for Managing Older Volunteers 178
6.2.11 Managing Volunteers during a Crisis 179
6.2.11.1 Crisis Contact Log 180
6.3 Coaching for Performance Improvement 181
6.3.1 Solution Focused Counseling/Coaching 182
6.3.2 Eight Steps to a Successful Individual Coaching Session 183
6.3.3 Prepare 183
6.3.4 Build a Relationship 183
6.3.5 Gather Data 184
6.3.6 Prioritize 184
6.3.7 Explore Options 185
6.3.8 Make a Plan 185
6.3.9 Implement Plan 185
6.3.10 Follow-up 186
6.4 Manage Conflict 186
6.4.1 Ten Tips for Resolving Conflict 186
6.5 Check List for Volunteer Supervision 187
6.6 Performance Reviews 188
6.6.1 Performance Review Forms 188
6.7 Volunteer Termination 194

Chapter Seven: Recognition 197
7. Recognition 197
7.1 Recognition Principles 197
7.2 Personalize Recognition 198

7.2.1 Assessing Motivation 198
7.2.2 Achievement-oriented Volunteers 201
7.2.3 Affiliation-oriented Volunteers 201
7.2.4 Power-oriented Volunteers 202
7.2.5 Recognition-oriented Volunteers 203
7.2.6 Altruism-oriented Volunteers 203
7.2.7 Identify Recognition Preferences 203
7.3 Reasons to Recognize Volunteers 205
7.3.1 Motivate through Recognition 205
7.3.2 Retain Volunteers through Recognition 205
7.3.3 Appreciation 206
7.4 Recognition Methods 207
7.4.1 Formal Recognition 207
7.4.1.1 Awards 207
7.4.1.1.1 DOD Public Service Awards 208
7.4.1.1.2 Military Volunteer Awards 208
7.4.1.1.3 Other Military-related Volunteer Awards 208
7.4.1.1.4 Military-affiliated Volunteer Awards 209
7.4.1.1.5 Civilian Awards 209
7.4.1.2 Length of Service 210
7.4.1.3 Certificates 210
7.4.1.4 Letters of Appreciation (LOAs) 210
7.4.1.5 Recognition Events 211
7.4.1.6 Media 216
7.5 Informal Recognition 216
7.5.1 100 Ways to Recognize Volunteers 216
7.6 Recognize Volunteer Supervisors 221
7.7 Document Recognition Efforts 222

Chapter Eight: Program Evaluation 225

8. Program Evaluation 225
8.1 Quality Measures 226
8.2 Components of Quality Assurance 226
8.3 Measurement Tools 227
8.3.1 Standard Operating Procedures 227
8.3.2 Accreditation Standards 234
8.3.3 Reporting Requirements 242
8.3.4 Program Self-assessment 242
8.3.5 Staff Feedback 244
8.3.5.1 Volunteer Feedback 246
8.3.5.2 Volunteer Exit Interviews 249
8.4 Integration of Quality Assurance Feedback 251
8.5 Professional Development 251
8.5.1 Orientation 252
8.5.2 Ongoing Education and Training 252
8.5.3 Supervision 253
8.5.4 Certified Volunteer Administrator 253
8.6 Resources for Volunteer Services Program Managers 255
8.6.1 Books 255
8.6.2 Journals 255
8.6.3 Websites 255