

Terms of Banking

1. Check
2. Check Card
3. Credit Union
4. Investments
5. Overdraft Protection
6. Service Charges
7. Check Endorsements
8. Command Financial Specialist
9. Debit Card
10. Joint Checking Account
11. PIN
12. Checkbook Register
13. Common Checkwriting Errors
14. Individual Checking Account
15. Online Banking
16. Point of Sale

- _____ A promise to pay.
- _____ The ability to log on to the Internet and access your account, check account balances, transfer money, and even pay bills electronically.
- _____ Blank, Restrictive and Special.
- _____ Tied in to your checking account, transactions are deducted from checking at the time you use it.
- _____ Illegibility, empty spaces, not signing, using a pencil.
- _____ A non-profit organization that is owned by its members.
- _____ Used like a check, money is taken from your account at the time of sale and deposited in the retailer's account. Some require a PIN.
- _____ Only one person is responsible for the account.
- _____ Make an entry in this every time you use your account: deposits, withdrawals, ATM transactions, checks, etc.
- _____ Money is taken from another source (savings, line of credit, etc.) and deposited into your checking account to cover checks written on it.
- _____ Money put into these at a credit union or bank that is NOT insured.
- _____ More than one person is responsible for the account.
- _____ Often shown as "POS" on your bank statement, this is a purchase for which you use your check or debit card.
- _____ The person at your command who has specialized financial education just so he or she can help you with your money management.
- _____ Make sure and safeguard this number, it is used when you use your ATM, debit or check card, or to access our accounts online.
- _____ Various fees you pay the financial institution to have an account.

