

New Sponsor Orientation Pre-Check

- T F 1. A sponsor should meet the newcomers when they arrive in town.
- T F 2. A sponsor must baby-sit for the newcomer's children while the newcomers house hunt or move in.
- T F 3. Each newcomer must complete a survey on their sponsorship experience.
- T F 4. A sponsor is responsible for sending the newcomers information about the area.
- T F 5. You can be a sponsor even if you are going TAD.
- T F 6. Giving newcomers a tour of the community is one of the sponsor's responsibilities.
- T F 7. Marine and Family Services operates a loan locker to provide basic household items until a newcomer's belongings arrive.
- T F 8. A sponsor should share his/her opinions about the unit and community; whether positive or negative.

New Sponsor Orientation Post-Check

- T F 1. A sponsor should meet the newcomers when they arrive in town.
- T F 2. A sponsor must baby-sit for the newcomer's children while the newcomers house hunt or move in.
- T F 3. Each newcomer must complete a survey on their sponsorship experience.
- T F 4. A sponsor is responsible for sending the newcomers information about the area.
- T F 5. You can be a sponsor even if you are going TAD.
- T F 6. Giving newcomers a tour of the community is one of the sponsor's responsibilities.
- T F 7. Marine and Family Services operates a loan locker to provide basic household items until a newcomer's belongings arrive.
- T F 8. A sponsor should share his/her opinions about the unit and community; whether positive or negative.