

Moving with a Special Needs Family Member Pre-Check

- T F 1. If a Marine rates at least a Category 3 status, he or she is automatically entitled to base housing.
- T F 2. The monitor will consider the EFM category assignment when issuing orders.
- T F 3. If a Marine rates a category 2, the family is still required to pass the overseas screening process.
- T F 4. An overseas screening can be done by staff at Marine and Family Services.
- T F 5. Enrollment in the EFMP allows one to select a duty station.
- T F 6. One should hand carry copies of all medical and educational records when relocating.
- T F 7. The IEP or IFSP from a child's current school/program will be automatically implemented at the new site.
- T F 8. STOMP is an organization to assist military parents with special needs children.

Moving with a Special Needs Family Member Post-Check

- T F 1. If a Marine rates at least a Category 3 status, he or she is automatically entitled to base housing.
- T F 2. The monitor will consider the EFM category assignment when issuing orders.
- T F 3. If a Marine rates a category 2, the family is still required to pass the overseas screening process.
- T F 4. An overseas screening can be done by staff at Marine and Family Services.
- T F 5. Enrollment in the EFMP allows one to select a duty station.
- T F 6. One should hand carry copies of all medical and educational records when relocating.
- T F 7. The IEP or IFSP from a child's current school/program will be automatically implemented at the new site.
- T F 8. STOMP is an organization to assist military parents with special needs children.