

Home Buying Pre-Check

- T F 1. The golden rule of real estate is “location, location, and location.”
- T F 2. A VA loan is the only type of loan available to service members.
- T F 3. You should always buy the most expensive home for which you can get financing.
- T F 4. It is important to get your credit report from all three credit companies.
- T F 5. Once you own a home you can remodel and add on to it in any manner you desire.
- T F 6. Real estate agents most often work for the seller.
- T F 7. Before selling your home you should always paint and put down new carpeting.
- T F 8. A home inspection is recommended only if you are buying a home costing more than $200,000.

Home Buying Post-Check

- T F 1. The golden rule of real estate is “location, location, and location.”
- T F 2. A VA loan is the only type of loan available to service members.
- T F 3. You should always buy the most expensive home for which you can get financing.
- T F 4. It is important to get your credit report from all three credit companies.
- T F 5. Once you own a home you can remodel and add on to it in any manner you desire.
- T F 6. Real estate agents most often work for the seller.
- T F 7. Before selling your home you should always paint and put down new carpeting.
- T F 8. A home inspection is recommended only if you are buying a home costing more than $200,000.