

HARVARD
UNDERGRADUATE VETERANS
ORGANIZATION

The New Vision for student veterans at Harvard College

HUVO advocates for veterans, fosters community, and encourages the personal, academic, and professional development of student veterans at Harvard College.

Advocacy

Coordinate with the Harvard College Admissions Office in order to provide advocate services for the veteran community, such as application assistance, providing support for the unique needs of student veterans, and improving the overall well-being of our members.

Service

Facilitate ongoing community service efforts for the veteran student population designed to benefit the larger Harvard University family, the Boston-area veteran community and the general population of the city.

Development

Encourage the personal, academic, and professional development of student veterans through peer mentorship, academic advisement, resourcing, professional development networking and skill development events.

Continued Growth

Total Veteran Enrollment
Harvard College

As the Harvard College veteran community has continued to grow, so has the diversity of our member's academic and professional interests.

The student veteran community at Harvard College continues to experience unprecedented growth thanks to the efforts of the Harvard Admission's Office and other organizations.

Distribution of Majors

Our Vision in Action

Community Service

HUVO is dedicated to serving the Harvard College community and the city of Boston by hosting clean-up events and volunteering in local shelters. We are eager to encourage a spirit of continued service both on campus and abroad.

Campus Support

As the HUVO community continues to grow, so do the needs of our members. We are eager to work with the Harvard College administration to assist student veterans as they pursue their academic goals.

Career Discovery

HUVO has plans to support the professional development and success of our members by hosting career panels that highlight opportunities in new industries. We hope to connect with successful business professionals who can speak with our members and share their insights and experiences.