College Notes – To apply, use either the Common Application or Coalition Application. Both applications open on August 1st and must be completed by the appropriate application deadline.

- Application Deadlines – Please review deadlines on Web site for any changes
- Fee Waiver - Veterans of the U.S. military should indicate on their Common Application or Coalition Application that they are eligible for a WashU fee waiver and their applications should reflect previous military service.
- SAT/ACT Requirement - WashU has extended the test optional policy for applicants for classes that will enter in Fall 2023 and Fall 2024.
 - First-year and transfer applicants for both fall 2023 and fall 2024 will have a choice about whether to submit standardized test scores or use the waiver.
 - Applicants who have taken the SAT or ACT and feel their scores reflect their abilities should submit them.
 - All applicants, whether or not they submit standardized testing, will receive full consideration for admission.
- Online Credit - Online or other distance learning courses will not be granted transfer credit.

- Personal Statement– Include:
 - First Year Applicant
 - A 200-word response to the question “Please tell us what you are interested in studying at WashU and why.”
 - Extracurricular and community activities
 - The Common Application or Coalition Application essay
 - Transcript – Please review the Website
 - Transfer Applicant - You must select one of our five undergraduate divisions (Architecture, Art, Arts & Sciences, Business, Engineering) when you apply. Credit is awarded if grades of C or better appear on your transcript. Final decisions concerning transferring course credits are made by your academic dean at Washington University. The Washington University transcript will only include grades earned at Washington University. Grades earned at your previous institution will not be recorded or included in the grade point average.
